

Two Attorneys from McTeague Higbee Honored in 2012 Edition of The Best Lawyers in America

TOPSHAM, Maine – Two attorneys from the Topsham-based law firm, McTeague Higbee, were recently selected by their peers for inclusion in the 2012 edition of The Best Lawyers in America. G. William Higbee and Jeffrey Neil Young were chosen through an exhaustive and rigorous confidential peer-review survey of more than 41,000 leading attorneys throughout the country.

G. William Higbee was chosen by his peers for this honor in the specialties of Workers' Compensation and Personal Injury Litigation. Higbee is a partner at McTeague Higbee, having founded the firm in 1976. He practices personal injury and federal workers' compensation law with a concentration in construction accidents, asbestos litigation, hearing loss and other occupational diseases. Higbee is a member of the Bath-Brunswick Bar Association, Maine State Bar Association, Maine Trial Lawyers Association, the Plaintiffs' Asbestos Litigation Group, and the American Association for Justice. Higbee earned his B.A. from DePauw University and his law degree from Washington University School of Law. He is a resident of Brunswick.

Jeffrey Neil Young has been selected by his peers for inclusion in the Best Lawyers in America in the specialty of Employment Law. Young joined McTeague Higbee in 1988. His practice focuses on representing employees and unions in employment disputes, concentrating on age, sex, race and disability discrimination matters as well as wage and hour disputes. Young serves as a chapter editor for BNA's Employment Discrimination Law treatise and is a past co-chair of the Maine State Bar Association's Labor and Employment Law section. He is a graduate of Brown University and Case Western Reserve University School of Law. Young is a resident of Cumberland Foreside.

Published since 1983, The Best Lawyers in America is widely regarded as the preeminent referral guide to the legal profession in the United States. Because Best Lawyers is based on an exhaustive peer-review survey in which more than 41,000 leading attorneys cast almost 3.9 million votes on the legal abilities of other lawyers in their practice areas, inclusion in Best Lawyers is considered a singular honor.
